The corporate governance of Yushin Precision Equipment Co., Ltd. (the “Company”) is described below.

I. Basic Views on Corporate Governance, Capital Structure, Corporate Profile and Other Basic Information

1. Basic Views

The Company aims at achieving sustainable growth and maximizing the enterprise value for medium- and long-term under the management philosophy with obtaining credibility from all stakeholders surrounding us including shareholders. We strive to strengthen corporate governance with the basic policy of following five items.

1. The Company respects the rights of shareholders and ensures equality, as well as strives to improve the environment for executing rights appropriately and protect rights.
2. The Company strives to sincerely cooperate with stakeholders excluding our shareholders with good sense.
3. The Company strives to ensure the transparency by appropriately making disclosure according to laws and regulations and voluntarily providing information excluding the disclosure.
4. The Board of Directors strives to execute its roles and duties appropriately for transparent/fair and flexible decision-making.
5. The Company strives to positively communicate with shareholders after sharing the direction of its stable growth for long-term.

[Reasons for Non-compliance with the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code] Updated

All principles are stated based on the code revised in June 2018.

[Supplementary Principle 4-1-3 Roles and Duties of the Board of Directors]

Regarding the training of successors, the Board of Directors will be involved actively, receiving advice from Nomination and Remuneration Committee, and the Company will promote the clarification of necessary requirements and the creation of an environment for training.

[Supplementary Principle 4-2-1 Roles and Duties of the Board of Directors]

Subjects of consideration include introduction of the compensation linked to medium- and long-term performance and stock compensation, and the ratios of base salary and performance-linked compensation, and cash salary and stock compensation after the introduction.

The company held a study group on the stock compensation system for internal executives, and the Company is working on concrete examination to design a compensation system based on objective and transparent procedures.

Regarding the level of remuneration, the Company set up an amount that is enough to appoint talented personnel, motivate them and retain them.

[Disclosure Based on the Principles of the Corporate Governance Code] Updated

All principles are stated based on the code revised in June 2018.

[Principle 1-4: Strategic Shareholdings]

The Company may hold the shares of business partners for the purpose of sustainable increases in enterprise value, keeping and strengthening business relations, and stable business management. Among holding shares, the main shares are verified in respect of economic rationality for medium- and long-term based on risk and return and future prospect. The results of verification are periodically reported to the Board of Directors. In FY 2019, as a result of the verification, the Company confirmed that there is validity of possession of all the shares held.

In response to future changes in circumstances, the Company will review such as reducing the number of shares held if it is not deemed adequacy of possession.

Regarding the exercise of voting rights of strategic shareholdings, the Company makes judgments based on the following two points.

- (1) Will it increase the corporate value of investee companies in the medium to long term and contribute to sustainable growth? (Financial soundness, no illegal acts done)
- (2) Will the corporate value of the Company improve and lead to shareholder's medium- and long-term benefits?

[Principle 1-7: Related Party Transactions]

The Company's "Regulations of the Board of Directors" provides that approval for competitive business and conflict-of-interest transactions by Directors require the resolution of the Board of Directors. The same is applicable to the case where counterparty is a major shareholder.

[Principle 2-6: Fulfilling Function as the Asset Owner of Corporate Pensions]

Regarding management of conflicts of interest that may arise between the beneficiaries of the corporate pension and the Company, the Basic Policy on Investment is established based on the guidelines of the Ministry of Health, Labor and Welfare to maximize the benefit of the beneficiaries. In addition, the Company has in-house responsibilities regarding the operation of corporate pension funds, and a consultation system to external specialized agencies.

[Principle 3-1: Enhancement of Disclosure]

- (1) Management philosophy, strategy and medium-term management plan is disclosed on "the Company's website," "Securities Report," "Investor Presentation Material" and others.
- (2) The basic policy for corporate governance is disclosed on "the Company's website" and "Corporate governance report."
- (3) The Company's remuneration of executives consists of basic salary, which is not linked to performance, and performance-linked remuneration, which depends on degree of achievement of performance goals. External Directors and Corporate Auditors, who are independent of business execution, receive only basic salary. Regarding the procedures of the determinations for the remuneration, a resolution is adopted on the gross amount of remuneration of Directors and Corporate Auditors at the General Meeting of Shareholders, and then an amount of remuneration for each Director is discussed by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, and a report or opinion is given to the Board of Directors, and is determined by the Representative Director whose discretion the Board of Directors leave the amount to.
- (4) The Company has the policy for nominating candidates of Directors and Corporate Auditors and appointing Executive Officers that those qualified to perform the duties and responsibility of Directors and Corporate Auditors shall be nominated/appointed sufficiently taking account of personality and insights. The External Directors and Corporate Auditors are expected to perform the function and role of objective and appropriate oversight or audits based on technical knowledge, and they are appointed based on the basic view that there are no threats of conflicts of interest with general shareholders. They are disclosed on the "Notice of Convocation for General Meeting of Shareholders" and "Securities Report". The selection of candidates of Directors and Corporate Auditors is discussed by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, and a report or opinion is given to the Board of Directors, and is determined by the Board of Directors. The appointment of Directors and Corporate Auditors is subject to the resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The policies and procedures for the appointment / dismissal of Directors and Corporate Auditors are stipulated in the "Regulations of the Board of Directors".

- (5) For the appointment / dismissal of Directors and Corporate Auditors, and the nomination of Directors / Corporate Auditors' candidates, explanation of each of appointment / dismissal and nomination will be disclosed at the "Notice of Convocation for General Meeting of Shareholders."

[Supplementary Principle 4-1-1: Roles/Duties of Board of Directors]

The Company defines the matters determined by a resolution at the Board of Directors in "Regulations of the Board of Directors provide." The regulations provide that significant matters on the General Meeting of Shareholders, the general management, stocks, organization and personnel affairs, Directors and business execution, other matters stipulated in laws and regulations including the Companies Act and significant matters equivalent to these matters shall be decided by a resolution at the Board of Directors. Meanwhile, to aim at clarifying the system of management responsibility and accelerating decision-making through transfer of the authority, the Company introduced the executive officer system on April 1, 2003, from a viewpoint of separating the function of management monitoring from business execution. The Company now has four non-Director Executive Officer.

[Principle 4-9: Criterion for Independence of and Qualification for Independent External Director]

The Independent External Directors of the Company are expected to perform the function and role of objective and appropriate oversight, and give advice based on technical knowledge, and are appointed based on the basic view that there are no threats of conflicts of interest with general shareholders. The Company has established its own criterion for the independence, given the independence criterion established by the financial instruments exchange.

[Supplementary Principle 4-11-1: Preconditions for Ensuring Effectiveness of Board of Directors and Board of Corporate Auditors]

Under rapidly changing business environment and advancement of globalization, the Company appoints candidates of Directors with a focus on balance among knowledge, experience and expertise, diversity and global viewpoints. Now seven Directors, including External Directors, take office. The Company will keep the number of the board members that immediate decision-making is conducted with each member providing his or her expertise and exchanging opinions each other.

[Supplementary Principle 4-11-2: Preconditions for Ensuring Effectiveness of Board of Directors and Board of Corporate Auditors]

Concurrent holding of positions of other companies by External Directors and Corporate Auditors is annually disclosed at "the Notice of Convocation for the General Meeting of Shareholders," "Securities Report" and "Corporate Governance Report." No Executive Directors concurrently serve as an officer of other listed companies, excluding those of our group, and the system is established that Executive Directors can be devoted on works of Directors. Full-time Corporate Auditor does not concurrently serve as an officer of other companies, and the system is established that they can be devoted to their work at all times.

[Supplementary Principle 4-11-3: Preconditions for Ensuring Effectiveness of Board of Directors and Board of Corporate Auditors]

External Directors now analyze and evaluate whole of the Board of Directors. To further improve the functions of the Board of Directors, analysis and evaluation of effectiveness of the whole Board including their methods are currently examined.

[Supplementary Principle 4-14-2: Training of Directors and Corporate Auditors]

Given the roles and duties expected and qualification and knowledge required of Directors and Corporate Auditors, the Company holds a training session for all Directors, Corporate Auditors and Executive Officers once or more a year. The Company also gives explanations about the corporate profile and holds plant tours for External Directors and Corporate Auditors when they take office as well as provides and arranges opportunities to receive the training necessary for each Director or Corporate Auditor and owes the expenses for the training.

[Principle 5-1: Policy for Constructive Communication with Shareholders]

- (1) In the Company, the Representative Director governs the general communication with shareholders.
- (2) The Corporate Planning Department, which is directly under the Representative Director, is in charge of IR and cooperates with the relevant departments for reasonable and smooth communication from shareholders.

(Translation)

- (3) The Company holds briefings for analysts and institutional investors on financial results for a full year and an interim period as well as makes individual visits to institutional investors, holds small-size meetings and accepts telephone interviews as needed. The Company also participates in securities companies- and consulting companies-hosting briefings for individuals once a year at least.
- (4) Opinions received at communication with shareholders are appropriately fed back at the Board of Directors meeting.
- (5) Insider information is appropriately administrated according to the Disclosure Policy.

External Directors' Relationship with the Company (2)

Name	Designation as Independent Director	Supplementary Explanation of the Relationship	Reasons of Appointment
Yasuo Nishiguchi		Yasuo Nishiguchi had served as the Representative Director of KYOCERA Corporation which is our client. The Company has insignificant transactions with KYOCERA Corporation, and there are no importance affecting on the independence. Currently, HANDY Co., Ltd., that he is the Representative Director, and the Company have entered into advisory agreements to receive guidance and advice on future management policies, etc.	Yasuo Nishiguchi has held such positions as the President and Representative Director, and the Chairman and Representative Director at KYOCERA Corporation. Based on his knowledge and experience in general management cultivated through prominent corporate positions, we asked him to give the Company advice and supervision of operations from an independent position. Thus, because we can expect to strengthen the function of the Company's Board of Directors, the Company appointed Yasuo Nishiguchi as an External Director of the Company. The transaction with HANDY Corporation and the Company falls under the conflict of interest transactions, and he is not designated as an independent officer because he does not meet the independence standards of external officers determined by the Company, but he meets the requirements of the external director, the Company judged that he is appropriate as an External Director.
Hiroshi Matsuhisa	○	The instruction contract concerning R&D was entered into between the Company and Hiroshi Matsuhisa. The Company had insignificant transactions with him and there are no importance affecting on the independence.	Based on the specialized knowledge by the person with academic standing in engineering of Kyoto University, we asked him to give the Company advice and supervision of operations from an independent position. Thus, because we can expect to strengthen the function of the Company's Board of Directors, the Company appointed Hiroshi Matsuhisa as an External Director of the Company. He is appointed as an Independent Officer of the Company because he meets criteria of independence as an external officer established by the Company and there are no

2. Matters on Functions of Business Execution, Auditing, Oversight, Nomination and Remuneration

Decisions (Overview of Current Corporate Governance System) Updated

- (1) The Company has established a Nomination and Remuneration Committee, whose outline is described in “1.Organizational Composition and Operation – [Directors]” in “II. Business Management Organization and Other Corporate Governance Systems regarding Decision-making, Execution of Business, and Oversight in Management” of this report.
- (2) The Company’s Board of Directors, which consists of seven Directors (including three External Directors), determines the policy for business execution of the Company and oversees business execution by Directors. The board monthly holds a meeting where all significant matters are submitted for discussion and proceeding of business results is discussed to examine measures, etc.
External Directors offer opinions from an external and independent viewpoint and give useful advice from a broad perspective at the meetings of the Board of Directors to manage and oversee general management while exchanging opinions with Corporate Auditors and Directors controlling the Internal Control Department.
- (3) In addition to the regular Board of Directors meeting, an executive meeting is weekly held. As a result, the information is shared by all executives about all significant matters on the Company and the system is established to sufficiently discuss and immediately make decisions on significant management matters.
- (4) The Company’s Board of Corporate Auditors consists of three members (including two External Corporate Auditors). Each Corporate Auditor audits the business execution by Directors by attending significant meetings, including the Board of Directors meetings and surveying the work and property according to the audit policy and plan made by Board of Corporate Auditors. All Corporate Auditors attend the regular Board of Directors meeting and full-time Corporate Auditor attends significant internal meetings, including executive meetings and management meetings. The information is shared about significant matters on the Company, and the system is established that Board of Corporate Auditors can accurately audit business execution by Directors.
- (5) From a viewpoint of the separation of management oversight function from business execution, the executive officer system was introduced on April 1, 2003. The Company has four non-Director Executive Officers.
- (6) Internal Audit Office, which is directly under the president, is in charge of internal audits. According to the internal audit plan made at the beginning of the year, the department visits headquarters and all domestic sales offices of the Company once a year and overseas representative offices and subsidiaries of the Company once a year to audit the general business activities and directly provides the president with the internal audit report. To warrant effectiveness of internal audit, the department instructs audited departments to improve business activities based on the audit results and requires them to report proceedings of improvement without delay.
- (7) As for Corporate Auditors’ audit, all Corporate Auditors attend the regular meetings of the Board of Directors and the full-time Corporate Auditor attends significant internal meetings, including executive meetings, to mainly audit violation of laws and regulations and the Articles of Association and facts that could potentially hurt the interests of shareholders and the Company. And, in order to ensure the effectiveness of the audit, Corporate Auditors attend the Board of Directors Meetings and required significant meetings including management conference as well as read major approval documents and other significant documents concerning business execution and receives explanation from Directors and employees of the Company and Directors of subsidiaries as necessary.

(Translation)

(8) As for accounting audits, the Company have concluded an audit contract with Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu LLC so they conduct audits. The CPA Yoshiki Yamada, Mitsuhiro Takasaki and Hideki Yasuda executed accounting audit activities. Nine CPAs and nine others were engaged in audit activities as an assistant.

3. Reasons for Adoption of Current Corporate Governance System

The system is established where determination of the policy for business execution by the Board of Directors, which consists of members with a high degree of expertise and abundant experience, makes it possible to execute all businesses appropriately and smoothly. Given a single business of the Company and current business scale, the Company thinks the current system reasonable where a small number of Directors can conduct immediate decision-making and flexible business execution. In addition to this, strict audit of the Board of Corporate Auditors including External Corporate Auditors with abundant expertise builds the system to completely oversee management. The Company thinks that our corporate governance system sufficiently works due to the above current systems.

IV. Matters Related to the Internal Control System

1. Basic Views on Internal Control System and the Progress of System Development

The Company has established the basic policy of Internal Control System for the development of a system to ensure that the execution of duties by Directors conforms to laws and regulations, and the Articles of Association as well as other systems that ensure the properness of operations of the Company, as follows. (Board of Directors Resolution on June 12, 2015) The main points of the basic policy are as follows.

1. System to ensure that business execution of Directors and employees complies with laws and regulations and the Articles of Association.
The Company raises the awareness for and holds training on legal compliance to increase awareness of compliance as well as establishes “Whistle-Blowing Regulations” providing the procedure for reporting violations.
2. System for keeping and managing the information on business execution of the Company’s Directors.
Information is kept and managed according to laws and regulations, and internal regulations (including “Document Regulations,” “Internal Information Management Regulations” and “Information System Management Regulations”)
3. Regulations on and other systems for risk management of losses of the Company and its subsidiaries.
Risk of currently estimated losses is managed by setting a committee and making discussion according to degree of its significance. Events delivering losses to the Company would be reported to Directors and Corporate Auditors by the Executive in charge and discussed and managed by all executives.
4. System to ensure effective business execution by Directors of the Company and its subsidiaries.
Effective business execution by Directors is ensured by followings:
 - (1) The Board of Directors determines significant matters and oversees business execution by Directors.
 - (2) Information is shared among Directors, Executives, and Corporate Auditors at executive meetings.
 - (3) Notice of significant matters on management, understanding of status and business instructions are conducted at management meetings and YSM management conference.
 - (4) At the subsidiaries conference, the information is shared on the Company and our subsidiaries and significant matters are discussed and determined.
5. The systems to ensure appropriate works of the corporate group consisting of the Company and its subsidiaries, and to make reports to the Company on matters concerning business execution by Directors of subsidiaries.
The Internal Control System is developed as we as “Subsidiaries Management Regulations” obligate subsidiaries to make periodic reports relating to business results, fiscal conditions and other significant information of subsidiaries.
Significant matters are discussed to solve issues at the Board of Directors
6. System to ensure effective Corporate Auditors’ audit.
Corporate Auditors attend the Board of Directors Meetings and required significant meetings including management conference as well as read major approval documents and other significant documents concerning business execution and receives explanation from Directors and employees of the Company and Directors of subsidiaries as necessary.
7. System on employees assisting works of the Company’s Corporate Auditors when Corporate Auditors require allocation of the assisting employees.
Employees assisting the work of the Company’s Corporate Auditors can be allocated as staff as necessary. Corporate Auditor has the authority to give instructions and orders to the staff.
8. System to ensure that those reporting to Board of Corporate Auditors and Corporate Auditors, etc. are not unfavorably treated for the reason of the report.
The Company ensures that executives and employees reporting to Board of Corporate Auditors and Corporate Auditors are not treated unfavorably because of the report and thoroughly inform the whole company of this. In the “Whistle-Blowing Regulations,” it is prescribed to prohibit dismissal and give other unfavorable treatment for the reason of the report.
